Advertisements

Description:

Xootic offer its sponsors the possibility of buying advertisement space in the newsletter.

The newsletter is a pdf-mailing (per e-mail) with which all Xootic members are kept updated about the activities and events happening in their association. The newsletters are only distributed amongst Xootic members. Given the nature of the newsletter the allowed advertisements are (low-res) black & white or color and restricted to a maximum A6 format size.

Procedure:

The initiative for using/buying the advertising space always comes from the partner. Xootic has the responsibility to inform the partners on a periodic basis about the services and opportunities that they can exercise. Furthermore, the partners can specify the edition of the newsletter in which they expect their advertisement to appear.

The advertisement can be sent to pr@xootic.org.

Mailings

Description:

There are two possible ways to use the "direct mailing" service: e-mail or social media (LinkedIn, Twitter, or Facebook). The initiative for using the service comes from the partner.

Procedure:

The partner has the responsibility to provide the needed material for the mailing, sending the desired content to secretary@xootic.nl and specifying via which channel (e-mail, Twitter, Facebook, or LinkedIn) the mailing must be distributed. Xootic takes care that the content is channeled to the members of Xootic (via the Xootic mailing
